

Dear

It's been a while since I've seen you,
My job was done, but only for a few.

Now I'm back again and I can't wait to play.
Until Christmas comes,
I'll be here every day!

My job is to tell Santa how every moment goes.
I'd rather report cheerful things
and not so many woes.

Sometimes I might make a mess &
Where I am you'll have to guess!

But no matter what,
please do not forget
You better not touch me,
not even for a bet.

Spread kindness to all
and of course have a ball.

love,
